How would you answer these questions?

I would describe God as . . .

My faith is like . . .

The role of church in my life is . . .

I participate in worship because . . .

My relationship with God is . . .

Yes, these are hard questions. But they are important questions. Figuring out your answers and charting your spiritual journey is like a dance ... done in the light of God's love.

CUMC and the Faith Development Team are pleased and excited to announce...
